

Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

September 2009

1. The Center for Terrorism Law is developing the agenda for its next national legal conference which will be entitled Cyber Security: Legal and Policy Issues for National Security, Law Enforcement, and Private Industry. The first of its kind conference presents a unique opportunity for leaders in law enforcement, Department of Defense, Department of Homeland Security, and the business community to receive critical information on the full range of issues – legal and policy – related to cyber security. Because of the nation’s dependence on the cyber world, cyber security is a matter that directly impacts all levels of society. Not only will internationally recognized subject matter experts provide the latest developments regarding the threat posed by cyber attacks as it impacts on national security, law enforcement, and the business community, the symposium will also concentrate on identifying all of the myriad legal and policy challenges associated with each of these fields of interest. In addition, participants will receive actionable information regarding cyber security solutions and future trends to include the need for increased cooperation between DOD, DHS, law enforcement, and the public sector. The conference will be held from March 18-19, 2010, at St. Mary’s University School of Law, San Antonio, Texas. Registration information can be found on the CTL website www.stmarytx.edu/ctl or via Ms. Faithe Campbell fcampbell@stmarytx.edu. Seating is strictly limited to 200.
2. The Center for Terrorism Law is coordinating with Texas A&M International University to help develop an agenda for a national conference on Narco-terrorism to be held in 2010 in Laredo, Texas.
3. As a participating member of the FBI’s Terrorism Research and Analysis Project (TRAP), the Center for Terrorism Law is preparing an article for publication entitled: Radial Islam’s Manipulation of the Media.
4. The Center for Terrorism Law is preparing a law review article for the Southern New England School of Law regarding the need for international adoption of civil litigation tools to deter international terrorism.

5. On October 18, 2009, at 7pm, Professor Addicott and former Mayor Henry Cisneros will moderate a documentary entitled: The Third Jihad, at the Bijou Theater, 5422 Fredericksburg, San Antonio, Texas. The documentary concerns the goals and objectives of radical Islamic terrorism targeted at Western democracies. For more information please email iparodfei@sbcgloabl.net.

6. On October 8, 2009, Professor Addicott will address the World Affairs Council of San Antonio. The topic regards the Obama Administrations Approach to the War on Terror.
