

St. Mary's University
Society for Applied Ethics

Tuesdays
3:30 – 5:30 pm
FALL 2004

Reinbolt 002
Graduate Seminar Room

What is it?

A student organization devoted to reflection and debate on pressing moral issues, from personal relationships to the U.S. role in world affairs.

What do we do?

Discuss real-world cases for the St. Mary's Regional Ethics Bowl each fall. Our National Intercollegiate Ethics Bowl team is also chosen each year from the Society for Applied Ethics.

Who are we?

Students of all majors wanting to understand the moral challenges shaping tomorrow's world.
No pre-requisites—open to all students.
