

St. Mary's University School of Law
Institute on World Legal Problems
July 6 through August 7, 2009

Printed Name _____ St. Mary's ID Number _____

Social Security Number _____

Circle your course preference

Classes meet Monday through Friday during the first week of class and Monday through Thursday thereafter.
Students must take no less than four nor more than six credit hours.

First Half = July 6 - July 21

Number	Description	Professor	Credit	Time	Exam
LW8604 (IBT)	International Business Transactions	Flint, Richard	2	8:00- 9:10	8/7 9:00-11:00 am
LW7162 (CAG)	Class Actions in a Global Context	Mullenix, Linda	1	9:20-10:30	7/21 5:00-6:00 pm
LW7111 (SCT)	The Supreme Court, the Constitution, & Problems of Crime and Terrorism	Justice Samuel Alito, Schlueter, David	1	10:40-11:50	7/22 4:00-5:00 pm
LW7175 (FSR)	Comparative Freedom of Speech & Religion	McAllister, Stephen	1	12:00-1:10	7/21 3:00-4:00 pm

Second Half = July 22 - August 7

Number	Description	Professor	Credit	Time	Exam
LW8604 (IBT)	International Business Transactions Continuation	Flint, Richard	2	8:00-9:10	8/7 9:00-11:00 am
LW8180 (IIT)	Introduction to International Taxation	Flint, George	1	9:20-10:30	8/6 3:00-4:00 pm
LW8102 (IHR)	International Human Rights: Global Sex Trafficking	George, Cheryl	1	10:40-11:50	8/6 5:00-6:00 pm
LW8182 (LA)	Lawyering Abroad: Basic Concepts of European Legal Systems	Koch, Bernhard	1	12:00-1:10	8/7 12:00-1:00 pm

ABA rules prohibit a student in a foreign summer program from taking more than 220 minutes of classroom instruction in a day. Students must select a schedule which includes no more than three classes per day during any part of the program