Letter of Good Standing

A letter of good standing is required from visiting students before final registration. The letter must reflect the student's standing at the conclusion of the last semester in which the student was enrolled prior to the beginning of classes in Innsbruck.

Registration Changes

Course additions, substitutions, withdrawals, and audits are permitted only if such changes do not run afoul of minimum/maximum credit hour requirements.

Adding Courses

Students seeking to add a course must do so prior to the third meeting of the class. Extra books and study materials normally are not available in Innsbruck. Students should take this factor into consideration when making final course selections or requesting course changes.

Auditing Courses

Changing from graded enrollment to audit is permitted until the middle of the instruction portion of the course.

Dropping Courses

A student is permitted to withdraw from a course anytime prior to the examination or equivalent deadline. The withdrawal will not appear on the student's transcript, unless the withdrawal occurs after the expiration of the refund period (see below).

Tuition Refunds

Tuition in a course is refunded according to a sliding scale based on the date of the student's withdrawal from the course:

Before the third class meeting	100%
After the third class meeting and before the fourth class meeting	67%
After the fourth class meeting and before the fifth class meeting	33%
After five class meetings	zero
