

Scholarships for Women in Graduate Education

American Association of University Women San Antonio Branch

The American Association of University Women promotes equity for all women and girls, lifelong education, and positive societal change.

The San Antonio Branch of the American Association of University Women offers scholarships to assist women to complete a graduate degree. The scholarships are a minimum of $1500 each to one or more applicants.

No more than two awards may be granted any recipient unless she has been approved and is enrolled in a program of courses leading to a doctoral degree.

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. Be residents, for a minimum of two years, in one of the following Texas counties: Atascosa, Bandera, Bexar, Comal, Guadalupe, Kendall, Medina, or Wilson;
2. Be enrolled in, or unconditionally accepted to, a program leading to a graduate degree. Students seeking a master's degree must be enrolled at an accredited university in Bexar County; students seeking a doctorate must be enrolled at an accredited university in Texas;
3. Be students in good standing with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0-point system);
4. Be registered for a minimum of six semester hours or be registered for dissertation hours;
5. Demonstrate financial need;
6. Demonstrate community service.

How to apply:

- ❖ Provide a two-page essay detailing your academic plans for the future and substantiating the above eligibility requirements have been met. Essays will carry substantial weight in the judging.
- ❖ Provide one letter of recommendation from the academic advisor or head of the program in which you are enrolled. (Please see Guidelines for Recommenders on this website.)
- ❖ Provide an official transcript of graduate work; if in the first semester of graduate school, provide official transcript of undergraduate work.
- ❖ Include address, phone numbers, and e-mail address.
- ❖ Applicants may be called for an interview with the Scholarship Committee.

Applications must be received by February 11, 2005. Scholarship(s) will be awarded at the AAUW luncheon on Saturday, May 7, 2005.
