

SEX AND THE CITY

of God

Intimacy, Wholeness and Faith in Culture

Tuesday, April 21, 2009

6:15-9:30 p.m.

Conference Rm. A

Discuss and discover the interplay between Catholicism and contemporary culture regarding sexuality and relationships

What are the theological, medical and psychological perspectives on relationships?

For he who extols the nature of the soul as the chief good, and condemns the nature of the flesh as if it were evil, assuredly is fleshly both in his love of the soul and hatred of the flesh; for these his feelings arise from human fancy, not from divine truth.
- St. Augustine; City of God

"Are we simply romantically challenged, or are we sluts?"
-Carrie
Sex and the City

Dates Welcomed,
But
Cocktail Attire Requested

"The struggle against carnal lust involves purifying the heart and practicing temperance."
Catechism, 2530

6 p.m. – Gather and mingle

6:30 p.m. – Viewing of Sex in the City for discussion

7 p.m. –

For Men- What a Guy Wants

For Women- What Not To Wear

7:30 p.m. – The Theory of Romance

What does it mean to take your time?

How do you respect your partner?

8:15 p.m. – Let's Talk About Sex, Baby

Do you know what you're getting yourself into?

9 p.m. – Wrap Up